

QUEENSLAND HEALTH PAYROLL SYSTEM
COMMISSION OF INQUIRY

Addendum statement of John Swinson

This statement is provided without any knowledge of other evidence that is held by the Commission, or that will be adduced in its Hearings, or any knowledge of the submissions that have or will be made to it. I am prepared to supplement this statement with addendum statements if further matters are raised that are not already canvassed in this statement.

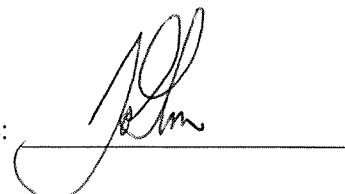

I, John Swinson state;

1. I previously made a statement to the Commission on 13 March 2013. I have since been provided with three lever arch folders containing the material that I will be asked to consider when I appear before the Commission.
2. Following a review of this material, in particular Tab 11.6 of Volume 1, I would like to expand on the details of the meeting I refer to at paragraph 23 of my statement. The notes of that meeting were attached to my statement and marked JVS2.
3. I attended the meeting of 14 August 2007 via telephone link, as I was in Melbourne at the time. The meeting was held at Mallesons' Brisbane office. The attendees were Maree Blakeney, Joanne Bugden, Keith Goddard, Barbara Perrott, Terry Burns and Steve Meck (a Mallesons lawyer who worked with me at the time). At that meeting, I advised that a formal tender process should be used to select the prime contractor. The notes of the meeting that were attached to my statement and marked JVS2 were prepared by Steve Meck after that meeting.
